Variation on the 4-4-5 calendar. It is used by companies that desire that their fiscal year always end on the same day of the week. Any day of the week may be used, and Saturday and Sunday are common because the business may more easily be closed for counting inventory and other end-of-year accounting activities.

4-4-5 calendar - Wikipedia
For comparability purposes, the NRF 4-5-4 Calendar restates a 53-week year in the subsequent year (ex. 2017 is restated for comparability to 2018). This is accomplished by pushing each week of the 53-week year back one week, thereby ignoring the first week of the fiscal year (in this example, 2017).

Assessment year is the year followed by the financial year in which the evaluation of the previous year's income is done, tax is paid on the same and ITR is filed. For instance, if we consider the financial year starting from 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2021, then it is known to be Financial year 2020-21.

A fiscal year (or financial year, or sometimes budget year) is used in government accounting, which varies between countries, and for budget purposes. It is also used for financial reporting by businesses and other organizations. Laws in many jurisdictions require company financial reports to be prepared and published on an annual basis, but generally do not require the reporting period to ...
