There are still a lot of families living within the old city of Fez, and life continues much as it has for centuries.

There are only three collectible Heart Cubes in FEZ, one in the Observatory, another in the Metatron Room, and another one in the Monolith Room. There is a non-collectible Heart Cube (known by fans as the Love Cube) in the Temple of Love that only appears in when the previously mentioned three Heart Cubes have been collected. Entering a certain code will make it disappear, and restart the game.
