Now available as an ebook for the first time ever in America, the bestselling coming-of-age classic novel by John Irving—the 40th anniversary edition with a new introduction by the author. " He is more than popular. He is a Populist, determined to keep alive the Dickensian tradition that revels in colorful set pieces...and teaches moral lessons. " —The New York Times The opening sentence of John Irving ' s breakout novel The World According to Garp signals the start of sexual violence, which becomes increasingly political. " Garp ' s mother, Jenny Fields, was arrested in Boston in 1942 for wounding a man in a movie theater. " Jenny is an unmarried nurse; she becomes a single mom and a feminist leader, beloved but polarizing. Her son, Garp, is less beloved, but no less polarizing. From the tragicomic tone of its first sentence to its mordantly funny last line— " we are all terminal cases " —The World According to Garp maintains a breakneck pace. The subject of sexual hatred—of intolerance of sexual minorities and differences—runs the gamut of " lunacy and sorrow. " Winner of the National Book Award, Garp is a comedy with forebodings of doom. In more than thirty languages, in more than forty countries—with more than ten million copies in print—Garp is the precursor of John Irving ' s later protest novels.

" Truly remarkable . . . encompasses the longings and agonies of youth . . . a complex and moving novel. " —Time " Astonishing . . . a writer of uncommon imaginative power. Whatever [John Irving] writes, it will be worth reading. " —Saturday Review It is 1967. Two Viennese university students, Siggy and Hannes, roam the Austrian countryside on their motorcycles—on a quest: to liberate the bears of the Vienna Zoo. But their good intentions have both comic and gruesome consequences in this first novel from John Irving, already a master storyteller at twenty-five years old. " Imagine a mixture of Till Eulenspiegel and Ken Kesey . . . and you've got the range of the merry pranksters who hot rod through Mr. Irving's book . . . tossing flowers, stealing salt shakers, and planning the biggest caper of their young lives. " —The New York Times
