Aging well: it can be done. Dr. Vaillant suggests that successful aging means giving to others joyously whenever one is able; receiving from others, gratefully, whenever one needs it; and being capable of personal development in between. To accomplish this, one must employ the social model of developmental stages and the emotional model of adaptational mechanisms of defense.

Aging alters the way people sleep, so when your loved one is up, you tend to be too. Changes in hormone levels affect “ sleep architecture, ” the cycle of progressing through different stages of sleep, which means that older adults often experience less deep sleep and wake up more frequently throughout the night (Insomnia and Seniors, Sleepfoundation.org, 9/28/20) .

Watching my parents age is difficult and painful—as it is for many of us. I can't stop the aging process. However, there is one thing I can do every day for them. I can pray and follow their example. They taught me to pray for all things and believe nothing is impossible with God. When I was hospitalized as an eight-year-old with a kidney ...
