This is the story of Gemma and me: how I lost her, I suppose. I don't usually tell it to anyone but myself. I save it for the darkest moments. Losing Gemma, Katy's Gardners debut novel about adventure, losing your best friend, and self-discovery, has been translates into twelve languages and compared to Alex Garland's breakthrough novel, The Beach, among many others. This time, the backpacking heroes are girls. What makes Losing Gemma truly unforgettable, is the read itself; it's an impossibly suspenseful novel that's as gripping as it is psychologically rich. Two young women have gone looking for adventure, backpacking through India-but only one returns. The other one believes it's all her fault. And the mystery behind what really happened during their fateful visit to a secluded shrine compels the reader forward to a page-turning conclusion that's shocking, strange, and haunting.

Returning to his home country of New Zealand, Brian Sutton-Smith documents the relationship between children's play and the actual process of history. Drawing upon hundreds of interviews the author illuminates for the first time the various social, cultural, historical, and psychological contexts in which children's play occurs.

"Warren Belasco is a witty, wonderfully observant guide to the hopes and fears that every era projects onto its culinary future. This enlightening study reads like time-travel for foodies."-Laura Shapiro, author of Something From the Oven: Reinventing Dinner in 1950s America "In his insightful look at human imaginings about their food and its future sufficiency, Warren Belasco makes use of everything from academic papers, films, and fiction to journalism, advertising and world's fairs to trace a pattern of public concern over two centuries. His wide-ranging scholarship humbles all would-be futurists by reminding us that ours is not the first generation, nor is it likely to be the last, to argue inconclusively about whether we can best feed the world with more spoons, better manners or a larger pie. Truly painless education; a wonderful read!"-Joan Dye Gussow, author This Organic Life "Warren Belasco serves up an intellectual feast, brilliantly dissecting two centuries of expectations regarding the future of food and hunger. Meals to Come provides an essential guide to thinking clearly about the worrisome question as to whether the world can ever be adequately and equitably fed."-Joseph J. Corn, co-author of Yesterday's Tomorrows: Past Visions of the American Future "This astute, sly, warmly human critique of the basic belly issues that have absorbed and defined Americans politically, socially, and economically for the past 200 years is a knockout. Warren Belasco's important book, crammed with knowledge, is absolutely necessary for an understanding of where we are now."-Betty Fussell, author of My Kitchen Wars

A fantastic tale by the legendary Diana Wynne Jones-with an introduction by Garth Nix. Polly Whittacker has two sets of memories. In the first, things are boringly normal; in the second, her life is entangled with the mysterious, complicated cellist Thomas Lynn. One day, the second set of memories overpowers the first, and Polly knows something is very wrong. Someone has been trying to make her forget Tom - whose life, she realizes, is at supernatural risk. Fire and Hemlock is a fantasy filled with sorcery and intrigue, magic and mystery - and a most unusual and satisfying love story. Widely considered to be one of Diana Wynne Jones's best novels, the Firebird edition of Fire and Hemlock features an introduction by the acclaimed Garth Nix - and an essay about the writing of the book by Jones herself.

The law of attraction is all about choosing your thoughts in a way that leads you towards the end result you wish to create. Most people understand the intellectual basis of the Law of Attraction, but putting it into practice is a whole other thing. The end result is frustration because although some things start happening, many other important things aren't moving at all. The question for you to answer is: are you someone who gets consistent results from using the Law of Attraction deliberately in order to manifest the life you want? Or are you like most others, whose experience is more of a hit or miss sort of situation? Are you someone who sees others create what they want, but for the life of you, you can't figure out what you're doing wrong? If you relate to either one of these situations then chances are that your understanding of how to use the Law of Attraction is somewhat incomplete or that you are missing something in the practical application of the concepts. No matter where you're starting from, rest assured this quick read book will set things right for you. At the end of this book you will have it all figured out.

Meditation is made out to be way more difficult than it truly is. One of the reasons for this is that there are so many different ways being taught. The purpose of this little book is to dig down to the foundation of the process of meditation and talk about why things are done in various different ways. The fewer the rules and rituals the easier it is.

How long does one have to pray to be heard? It's not about how long but how... There is an art to prayer... you have to pray in a way that God listens Have you been praying for a very long time? Are there important things in your life that you want to improve? Does it seem to you that your prayers are not being heard? Do you feel that life isn't fair? Why are some prayers answered and others not? Why do good people suffer? Why do rascals thrive? Why is God unfair? Have you ever thought about these things? Have you ever wondered why some things you ask for take a very long time to come? Have you ever wondered why some people can get away with anything? I've been looking for the answers for a very long time. My search has not been in vain. I have discovered that God does have a system for answering prayers. Gods system is perfect and fair every time. Once we understand how it works and start using it effectively we claim our true power. Life becomes easy and fun, and we start looking forward to each day with eagerness. We start understanding that we do have control on how things work out. This art of prayer is at the base of every religion...but it has been misinterpreted in so many ways that those with logic have given up on it. But this is the age of a great Awakening and so the art of prayer is being rediscovered. Some call it the Secret. Others call it the Law of Attraction. The point is to understand that prayer is not a ritual. We are in a state of prayer all the time, and for the most part we're messing it up big time. This book will help you understand how prayer works and how to use it effectively, so that God Listens. With a little bit of practice and just ten days of doing it differently, you will start feeling better and more in control, and then the evidence will start showing up, confirming to you that you're finally getting it. This is your life, and you owe it to yourself to make the most of it. Reviews and questions are welcome Much love and appreciation Zehra

Many books have been written about anger management and over coming worry and anxiety and about what to think and believe and how to act, but three things set this book apart from the rest. The first is the depiction of the thinking process in the form of illustrations that make it easy to understand how our thoughts impact our results; the second is a method that helps us to identify the beliefs that operate under the surface and control our lives without our knowing it; third a four step process that helps to deactivate negative beliefs permanently so that we can thrive. The end result: freedom from worry, anxiety, and anger and a set of thinking exercises that can be used in every situation you would ever encounter in life. Zehra has a gift for taking complex ideas and simplifying them so that they can be understood and applied easily by people of all ages and backgrounds. She has applied the concepts in the book to transform her own life, and helped many people to do the same through her books, talks and coaching programs.
