"Blood & Ice" is quite an original vampire story. It intertwines the past and the present day to give us two stories which run parallel to one another. The story of Sinclair and Eleanor in Victorian England and the other of Michael Wilde, present day photographer and journalist, who travels to a remote research station in Antarctica to write a story for a magazine.

Blood and Ice was a comic story published in Doctor Who Magazine in 2015. It featured the Twelfth Doctor and Clara Oswald. It explored the possibility of many more alternate Clara Oswalds existing than those originally portrayed in the television series. This subsequently led Clara to meet Winnie Clarence, one of her "splinters".
