Hoover is an ambitious, cunning, and opportunistic man whose talent for espionage has enabled him to rise through the ranks of the ARBI just as quickly as he did through the FBI in our timeline. He is perfectly at home in the political arena and knows how to choose the right allies to achieve his ambitions.

J. Edgar Hoover | The Man in the High Castle Wikia | Fandom

That someone as loathsome as J Edgar Hoover should become arguably the most powerful person in the USA after the President himself is grimly remarkable. His personal caprices, hatreds and even perversions are laid bare in Curt Gentry's supremely well-researched and savagely revealing biography of the infamous FBI head honcho.
