Marketing principles – 4P Strategy/Matrix. The principle of the 4P Marketing Strategy or Matrix is that marketing decisions tend to fall into four categories – product, place, price, and promotion. We refer to them as four ‘controllable’ categories. They are ‘controllable’ because our efforts affect them or their outcomes. When you combine all your marketing goals and objectives into one plan, you have a marketing strategy.

Delivering value to customers is an integral part of contemporary marketing. For a firm to deliver value, it must consider its total market offering – including the reputation of the organization, staff representation, product benefits, and technological characteristics – and benchmark this against competitors' market offerings and prices. In Principles of Marketing each part of the marketing process is explored from the value perspective. The book also looks in detail at the impact of social media upon marketing practices and customer relationships, and the dramatic impact that new technologies have had on the marketing environment. Key Features: * Adopts a value-based approach throughout * Presents the fundamentals of marketing in a clear and concise manner * Fully developed pedagogy to aid student learning * Real-life international case studies show marketing in action * Dedicated chapter on social media and Internet marketing * ESL feature helps international students get to grips with complex vocabulary Principles of Marketing is an ideal companion for all undergraduate students taking an introductory course in marketing.
