Difference Between Monologue and Soliloquy | Compare the ...

A monologue might be delivered to an audience within a play, as it is with Antony's speech, or it might be delivered directly to the audience sitting in the theater and watching the play. But a soliloquy – from the Latin solus ("alone") and loqui ("to speak") – is a speech that one gives to oneself. In a play, a character delivering a soliloquy talks to herself – thinking out loud, as it were – so that the audience better understands what is happening to the character internally.
