Sir Oswald Cheung's Chambers
When I compared versions of the Tchaikovsky for BBC Radio 3's Building a Library, there was a marked contrast between chamber orchestras and large symphonic string sections. The best of each proved equally viable, but here we had the virtues combined; Southwark Cathedral acoustics, far from muddying the sound, gave it extra depth and body. The joy and tenderness of this great masterpiece ...

998 quotes from Oswald Chambers: 'We tend to use prayer as a last resort, but God wants it to be our first line of defense. We pray when there's nothing else we can do, but God wants us to pray before we do anything at all. Most of us would prefer, however, to spend our time doing something that will get immediate results. We don't want to wait for God to resolve matters in His good time ...
