Romans 12:15. Rejoice with them that do rejoice. Not in anything sinful and criminal, in a thing of nought, in men's own boastings; all such rejoicing is evil, and not to be joined in; but in things good and laudable, as in outward prosperity; and to rejoice with such, is a very difficult task; for unless persons have a near concern in the prosperity of others, they are very apt to envy it, or to murmur and repine, that they are not in equal, or superior circumstances; and also in things ...

hearing our prayers?," and "Why does God test us? " as you explore God ' s Word using the many study helps. The original Quest Study Bible was conceived in 1989 when two publishing companies, Zondervan and Christianity Today International, worked together to develop a Bible that would answer the challenging questions that arose as people read Scripture. Focus groups around the United States evaluated the usefulness of potential study Bible features and helped select the features that would be included in this Bible. Then, more than 1,000 people received passages of Scripture and were asked, " What questions do you have about this portion of the Bible? " Their responses helped determine what kinds of questions the notes would answer, helping to create a resource Transformed Living You and I are destined by God to live meaningful, fulfilling lives. Lives that reflect a rich, satisfying relationship with Christ where we enjoy God's company and find pleasure in making Him known. Yet, we are often left with spiritual sluggishness and a lack of satisfaction in Christ. So, what keeps us from living the life God has for us? Our minds. The mind is the seat of our thoughts, perceptions, emotions, and interpretations. It's the secret space that determines everything we do, the captain's seat for every decision we make. Romans 12 is calling for a replacement of our worn out and run down thinking. Instead, it describes what a Re-Minded follower of Christ looks like. An enemy lover. A spiritual gift user. A harmony maker. An honor giver. A Body of Christ member. A peace bringer. By Asking questions, searching Scripture, and making Conclusions based on what the Bible tells us, we will know God more deeply and experience a transformed, Christ-centered mind. As our mind is transformed, we will go deeper with Jesus, obey His Word, live freely, and joyfully abide within our callings.

This study illustrates how Paul reworks Old Testament citations in Romans to incorporate the Gentiles into Israel's covenant-renewal texts.
