The Knowing the Bible series is a new resource designed to help Bible readers better understand and apply God's Word. Each 12-week study leads participants through one book of the Bible and is made up of four basic components: (1) Reflection questions designed to help readers engage the text at a deeper level; (2) "Gospel Glimpses" highlighting the gospel of grace throughout the book; (3) "Whole-Bible Connections" showing how any given passage connects to the Bible's overarching story of redemption culminating in Christ; and (4) "Theological Soundings" identifying how historic orthodox doctrines are taught or reinforced throughout Scripture. With contributions from a wide array of influential pastors and church leaders, these gospel-centered studies will help Christians see and cherish the message of God's grace on each and every page of the Bible. The book of Romans was Paul's greatest literary achievement, a majestic letter in which the apostle expounds on crucial doctrines such as original sin, election, substitutionary atonement, the role of the law, and justification by faith alone. Plumbing the theological depths, Jared Wilson writes with a pastor's eye toward

"The Bible Teaching Commentary series acts as a useful expository commentary designed to unlock the power of God's Word so that lives can be strengthened and deepened. ... Teaching outlines, along with extensive summaries, keep the book as a whole in mind despite the apostle's deep digression into extended logical arguments. A careful balance is maintained between the explanation of difficult passages and the communication of Paul's main message of transformation in each passage. The companion volume: The Book of Romans : Study Questions provides extensive study questions that allow the teacher and student to dive deeper into the meaning and application of the Book of Romans."--Introduction
