Kimmerer has been trained to ask questions of nature with the tools of science. As a member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, she embraces the notion that plants and animals are our

In *Braiding

Kimmerer brings
these two lenses
of knowledge
together to take us on “a journey
that is every

it is
scientific, as sacred as it is historical, as

Drawing on her life as an indigenous scientist, and as a woman, Kimmerer shows how other living beings—asters and goldenrod, strawberries and squash, salamanders,

algae, and
sweetgrass—offer
us gifts and
lessons, even if
we've forgotten
how to hear
their voices. In reflections that range from the creation of Turtle Island to
the forces that threaten its

circles toward a

argument: that the awakening of ecological consciousness
requires the
acknowledgment

of our

when we can hear

and learn to

gifts in return.
