Slicing Pie allows people to "invest" in the future outcome of the company. But, unlike an established company, startups have no value so it's not a traditional investment, it's a gamble. Because it's a gamble, the price and percentage ownership of the shares isn't absolute, it's relative based on each person's bet.

The Problem with Equity as Compensation - Slicing Pie

Slicing Pie is a universal formula for creating a perfectly fair equity split in an early-stage, bootstrapped startup. Traditional, old-fashioned equity splits are based on guesses about the future, negotiation skills and rules-of-thumb. The Slicing Pie model is different because it's based on what participants actually contribute over time.

In most cases, I recommend paying company expenses from the company bank account rather than running it through personal accounts. In the early days this may be impractical, but as your company grows you'll need to get your banking organized. Slicing Pie's Well feature allows individuals to contribute cash to a corporate savings account. When money is transferred from the savings account into a checking account to pay bills, the amount of the transfer converts to slices for each ...
