The Barth Lectures: Colin E. Gunton: Paul Brazier: T&T Clark

Gunton on Barth is an in-depth analysis, derived from the lecture course he gave most years at King's College London: something of an annual institution it was aimed at undergraduates, though the majority of those attending were MA/PhD students, and researchers from America and Germany!

The lectures, of course, were well prepared, replete with handouts and diagrams, but what you hear is not only Gunton's take on Barth but also his taking on Barth even as he speaks. That is, we not only get theology, we actually get theologising – Barth “is a great man to learn to think theologically with” – as Gunton probes on his feet, sometimes with touching tentativeness.
