It is not by what he does that he appeals to us, but by what he sees and feels. The book is the analysts prized possession on Literature in form of narrative technique and critical illustration expressing her personal beliefs and disbeliefs on human characters and their respective thoughts prevalent in the society even today: What, after all, is the creation? What is man; a creature fabricated by God; or is he the product of millions of years of evolution... and is he heading towards what we might call superman? or towards his doom? Do Fate and Characters act and react upon each other? The fault, dear Brutus, lies in ourselves and not in stars. The outer story of ambiguity on human life and sometimes his complex personality beyond analysis together leads to another parlance of inner story. As such, it intensifies the character along with his refinement of nature. One of my favourable quotes: Thunder is good; thunder is impressive. But it is lightening that does the work.

This is the first one-volume guide in English, or indeed in Bengali, to the full spectrum of Tagore's multi-faceted genius. It has two parts: (a) critical surveys of the chief sectors of his artistic output and its reception; (b) specialized studies of particular topics. The authors are among the leading Tagore experts from India and abroad. They have drawn upon all relevant material in Bengali, English, and other languages, including the entire body of untranslated Bengali works that comprise the greater part of Tagore's oeuvre. They have also considered the historical and cultural context of his time. The book
