from Xi'an to Samarkand, where
merchants, envoys,

China's main partners were the peoples of modern-day Iran, whose tombs in China reveal much about their Zoroastrian beliefs. Silk was not the most important good on the road; paper, invented in China before Julius Caesar was born, had a bigger impact in Europe, while metals, spices, and glass were just as important as silk.

"All roads used to lead to Rome. Now they lead to Beijing." So argues Peter Frankopan in this revelatory new

Yet to the East, this is a moment of optimism as a new network of relationships takes shape along the ancient trade routes.
